

Cubbie Kicker Coordinator

Meet Brian Wall

Brian Wall is the coordinator of BWSS Cubbie Kicker Program and summer soccer camps. Residing in New Market, Maryland, Brian is the current Head Men's Soccer Coach at Hood College in Frederick. He currently holds various coaching badges, including a NSCAA National Coaching license. Along with his extensive coaching experience at various levels, Brian continues to design and implement player development programs for local youth soccer players of all age levels throughout the Baltimore/Washington Metro Region.

The Brian Wall Soccer School (BWSS) Mission

The mission of BWSS is to teach and provide youth soccer players with the necessary soccer knowledge and skills that enable each student the opportunity to be a more successful soccer player. Along with creating and applying well developed age-specific curriculums and programs, BWSS achieves its mission by promoting a positive, secure, instructional, and fun learning environment for all students. BWSS believes that every youth soccer player can improve his or her overall soccer skills and is committed to encouraging all students to learn without limits.

Cubbie Kicker Information

DESCRIPTION

BWSS Cubbie Kickers is a program that enables children to get an introduction to the sport of soccer and have a great deal of fun. The purpose of the program is to enable children to enjoy interacting and socializing with other children of similar ages and begin to learn soccer fundamentals. The program achieves this by fostering a noncompetitive yet challenging environment as each Cubbie Kicker participates in simple, fun, safe, engaging and useful soccer related activities.

DETAILS

BWSS Cubbie Kicker Program is for children ages 4-5 consists of a series of soccer classes that meet once a week. Each class is 30 minutes long and occurs for 5 weeks. Each class contains approximately 8 children and are co-ed. Each child is given a BWSS Cubbie Kicker T Shirt.
